Description of Training Program:

DriveXperience's Entry-Level CDL Class A Training Program is a 120-hour FMCSA Entry-Level Driver Training (ELDT) program designed to prepare students for a Michigan Class A Commercial Driver License (CDL). The program combines classroom instruction, range skills training, and behind-the-wheel road training. Students receive hands-on instruction from experienced CDL instructors and, upon successful completion, are reported to the FMCSA Training Provider Registry and prepared to complete the Michigan CDL Skills Test. Career placement assistance is also provided to help graduates obtain employment with regional and national motor carriers.
