Description of Training Program:
Emerging Industries Training Institute's Carpentry Pre-Apprentice Course provides essential training to individuals who are looking to begin their career in carpentry. EITI has worked tirelessly to custom design and build a course that most accurately reflects and mimics the tasks of a career Carpenter. Pre- apprentice carpenters are shown how to perform multiple construction tasks so they can learn different aspects of carpentry. Students learn the foundation of carpentry like making concrete to installing windows and doors. During this 480-hour course, trainees will receive the industries finest instruction in the classroom, in the field and in simulated construction sites.
